RICHMOND NEWS AND GOSSIP

Messrs Anderson and Goode Mentioned For Senatorship.

RED MAN MADE SICK

He Was Being Initiated and Had Congestion of the Lungs—Rev. Wm. Lunsford Will Decline Call to Venable Street Church—Cases Disposed of by Supreme Court of Appeals at Wytheville.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., June 14.—While it is certain that Hon. William A. Jones will not be a candidate for the Senate it seems that there is no certainty that there will not be a candidate.

There is a great deal of talk of Hon. William A. Anderson, of Lexington, or Hon. John Goode, of Bedford City, becoming a candidate. It is believed, however, that both would decline a nomination if tendered it.

There is little doubt of a campaign, and as effective a one as possible, being carried on by the Reform League. Rooms for the league have been leased at Murphy's Hotel until November.

The object of the league is to agitate the popular election of Senators in Virginia and other States. The organization is national in character. But it seems that it is intended to make a specially active campaign in Virginia during the present contest. The lack of a reform candidate necessarily makes all work decidedly uphill.

The City Democratic Committee will probably be called soon to consider the question of ordering a primary for the purpose of selecting legislative candidates, and also instructing them as to the popular choice for the Senatorship. Senator Martin's friends are in the majority on the committee, and it is understood that they will not oppose a primary here, though the majority on the State Committee refused to adopt a resolution urging county committees to put the primary plan in operation.

THE SUPREME COURT.

A telegram from Wytheville says: The Supreme Court of Appeals today disposed of the following cases: Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Reeves and McNeill. Argument finished and case submitted.

Robertson vs. Town of Abingdon. Argued and submitted.

Douglas vs. Commonwealth. Moved to foot of docket.

UNKNOWN TO THE LAST.

A telegram from Williamsburg says that Coroner Armistead, with a jury, held an inquest over the remains of the young white man killed on the railroad track Monday morning near Lee Hall. There was nothing on the person of the deceased by which he could be identified. He was about five feet, five or six inches tall, round face, dark complexion, straight black hair, had on plain black suit, straw hat and plain toed lace shoes, comparatively new. The body was buried by the side of the railroad track near Lee Hall, where the accident happened. The boy, who was apparently twenty or twenty-one years of age, was seen Sunday at Toano, in company with two tramps.

GOOD EYE!

A dispatch from Aylett, in King William county, says: "Mr. Henry Moren, of Benhville, a few days ago, in coming out of his field with a large turn of fodder upon his head, walking, struck his forehead against a post and received a severe laceration. He let the fodder fall to the ground, blew his nose and out popped one eye, but, quick as thought, Mr. Moren put his hand to the eye and it is all right, except a little bloody looking."

WILL NOT ACCEPT.

A telegram from Roanoke states that Rev. William Lunsford will decline to accept the call to the Venable-Street Baptist Church in Richmond. It is generally understood that he will accept a flattering call to Bowling Green, Ky.

RED MAN MADE HIM SICK.

It is stated to-day that Mr. Ashby Claiborne, who resides at Fifth and Hull streets, in Manchester, was taken suddenly ill while being initiated into a tribe of Red Men Monday night. Mr. Claiborne was apparently well and in good spirits Monday, but it is thought that the excitement of the initiation exercises was too much for him. About half past nine o'clock that night, when, presumably, he was being tortured at the stake with the dusky red skins, covered with war paint and brandishing their tomahawks, dancing around him, he was overcome.

The sick brother was carried into Harnish's ice cream saloon, where heroic measures were resorted to. Finally, the big medicine man, Dr. W. P. Matthews, was hurriedly summoned, and he responded quickly. The big medicine man pronounced the trouble congestion of the lungs, and restoratives were resorted to with the result that within two hours Mr. Claiborne was able to go home in a carriage.

Vermont turkeys are said to have a flavor peculiar to themselves. Ground chestnuts and corn meal are mixed and used in the fattening process. The combination of grain and meal making a mash from which to distill the G. O. Taylor Whiskies is the result of much experiment and study. The flavor of this Whiskey is one of ripeness and maturity as applied by Connoisseurs to distilled liquors.

For medicinal use nothing equals G. O. T. which is the abbreviation applied by the average physician about the medicinal worth and he will tell you he believes in its purity, and nine times out of ten he will say: "I believe."

G. O. Taylor Whiskies are all they are represented to be. PURE. If by chance he should be the tenth doctor who hadn't personal knowledge of its value in the sick room, he can have samples without money and without price, through his Druggist. These Whiskies have been bottled by us since May, 1872, and are the original and genuine Taylor Whiskies. Refuse substitutes. Inset on having "G. O. Taylor" Whiskies, bottled by the only Proprietors, in Boston. CHESTER H. GRAVES & SONS. For sale at White Bros., Norfolk, Va., Brown's Hotel, Portsmouth, Va.

Rev. Dr. A. E. Owen, of Grace Street Baptist Church, Norfolk, preached to a large audience at Grace Street Baptist Church, this city, to-night.

MADE D. D'S.

The trustees of the Richmond College met this morning and conferred the honorary degree of D. D. on Rev. J. B. Hutson, of Richmond, and Rev. H. W. Tribble, of Charlottesville.

Mr. J. Hunt Hargrove, of Chatham, was made a trustee.

The report of the Committee on Instruction reported in favor of electing Mr. F. W. Duke to act as professor of mathematics next year. Prof. R. J. Kellogg was continued for session 1899-1900.

WEST POINT.

MR. SAVAGE, OF PINNER'S POINT, WEDS MISS CARLTON.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

West Point, Va., June 14.—One of the prettiest marriages that was ever witnessed here took place this afternoon at the Methodist Church, when Mr. Robert Lee Savage, of Pinner's Point, Va., led to Hymen's altar Miss Ella Carlton, of West Point. Promptly at 5 o'clock as the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, artistically rendered by Mr. William Thomas Shepherd, of Richmond, Va., pealed forth the bridal party entered the middle aisle of the church in the following order: First came two little flower girls, Misses Myra and Martha Chambers, of Richmond, one dressed in white and the other in pink organdie, and bearing silver baskets of flowers. Then came the ushers, Messrs. John Hughes Carlton and H. A. Mosley, of Norfolk, and W. W. Nelson and J. F. Butler, of West Point. The bride, who followed with her maid of honor, Miss Ella Carlton Jackson, of Richmond, was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Geo. Kauffman Carlton, brother of the bride. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. C. L. Morrison, of Elmira, N. Y., assisted by Rev. W. E. Ballard, pastor of the church.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white organdie. Her veil was of tulle, caught with a diamond sunburst and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair ferns. The maid of honor was attired in pink and carried a bunch of Testout roses.

After the ceremony the bridal party left the church to the melody of Lohengrin's wedding march.

The handsome edifice was most beautifully decorated in white and green. The bride is the fair and beloved daughter of Mrs. Camilla Carlton, of West Point. The groom is one of the most popular young men who has ever gone out from this town, and now holds a responsible position with the Southern Railway at Pinner's Point, Va. The high esteem in which they are both held was evidenced by the crowded house and the many lovely presents they received.

Their many friends here wish them a long and happy life in their new home, which they will reach after a Northern trip, to which they left immediately after the ceremony via the Baltimore steamer Danville.
